The Occasional Chef

We use the freshest ingredients available!

In today's busy world it can be difficult to be everywhere you want to be and do everything you want to do. Now you don't have to!

The Occasional Chef is the answer to balancing your need to entertain with keeping your time free to pursue other interests.

After planning a menu with you, we do the shopping, food preparation, and cooking so you can relax and enjoy your party. We cook in your own kitchen and serve on your own dishes so you can dine with your guests in absolute comfort. When we're done, we leave your kitchen as we found it. Neat and tidy.

It's your party and it is entirely up to you whether we stay and assist you in serving your guests or whether we quietly leave prior to your guest's arrival. We happily accommodate your requests and do whatever we can to ensure a successful function.

We provide centerpieces, theme decorations, candles, and other decorations upon request. Let us help you plan the perfect party. From baby showers and wedding receptions to reunions of good friends, we can make your celebration memorable!

We cater to every taste!

Menu Options

Our selection of recipes offers a variety of flavors and textures with menu items from Mediterranean, southwestern, southern, Italian, and Mexican cuisine. For that real home cooked taste, we will use your favorite recipes made to your specifications, just as you would if you had the time. No one will know you didn't cook it yourself unless you tell them.

Some of our favorite offerings are:

- French Baked Chicken with Tarragon Blood Orange sauce
- Sesame crusted Swordfish with Wasabi Butter
- Pistachio crusted Chicken with roasted Pepper Risotto
- Spicy sautéed Sea Bass with Olive tomato Chutney
- Pot Roast in Hatch Chili Gravy with Whipped Root Vegetable Swirl
- Spinach and Feta frittata with Macadamia Oatmeal pancakes

Easier Than Catering

No dishes to return. No worrying about the number of plates or tablecloths you need. No sweating whether the food will arrive hot. It's all taken care of because we're in your home and you can relax!

Special Diets

We are receiving an increasing number of requests for special diets. We understand that you or your guests may be on a restricted diet for any number of reasons and we are committed to supporting the ongoing health of everyone who dines with us. We can easily work with you to select menu items that everyone on your guest list can enjoy while participating fully in the event you plan.

As part of our service to you, we enjoy this aspect of our work particularly, because we understand some of the challenges faced by those who cannot eat freely in restaurants. We use organic meats and produce on request, and always seek the freshest and most delicious items. We prefer to use locally grown, in season produce when possible and will do our best to provide you with a memorable meal.
